

Promote your museum, landmark or historic destination online in the

HistoryNet.com

Heritage Travel Directory

Reach thousands of potential visitors!

Weider History Group subscribers are avid travelers, museum-goers and attendees of history-related events, and that interest translates to big numbers online. HistoryNet.com boasts 6 million impressions and 600,000 unique visits per month!

Now you can reach this valuable audience online with the HistoryNet.com Heritage Travel Directory. Linking from the home page, it's browsed by historical travel enthusiasts every day.

When you advertise in the Heritage Travel Directory, you get a 300 x 250 gallery ad space and 25 words of descriptive copy. It will click through to the URL you designate.

It's easy to participate—just email your ad or JPEG visual and copy to kurt.gardner@weiderhistorygroup.com. It will post within five days of receipt.

Contact your sales representative today!

Spring 2011
HERITAGE TRAVEL
Directory

If you're looking for historical sites to visit, upcoming events and places with historical tours, make this your first stop. Heritage Travel is a wonderful way to enrich your experience of history...check out these terrific destinations.

OAK RIDGE, TN
The gates are unlocked. Come explore.
UNLOCK THE SECRETS
OakRidgeVisitor.com
800-887-3489
TOP SECRET

Antebellum Homes
Capital of Tennessee
www.antebellum.com
Eleventh President James K. Polk Ancestral Home, Civil War sites, historic antebellum homes, unique eateries and more, all just 40 minutes south of Nashville.

HOLLY SPRINGS MISSISSIPPI
TOURISM BUREAU
All Kinds of Character!
A true "antebellum encyclopedia" just steps from Memphis & Tunica featuring historic home tours, museums, camping, galleries, shopping, a one-of-a-kind shrine to Elvis and more!

BATTLE OF FRANKLIN TRUST
The Carter House and Carnton Plantation
DEDICATED TO TELLING THE STORY OF THE FIVE BLOODIEST HOURS OF THE CIVIL WAR.
WWW.BATTLEOFFRANKLINTRUST.ORG
Guided tours of Carnton Plantation, including garden and Confederate cemetery; The Carter House and Lotz House at the epicenter of the Battle of Franklin.

CHATTANOOGA TAKE ME THERE
Step back through history and learn how the Chickamauga Campaign helped shape the direction of the Civil War. Click banner for more information.

The Hermitage
HOME OF PRESIDENT ANDREW JACKSON
Come for the history- leave inspired.
Since 1889 over 15 million people have crossed its threshold. We invite you to The Hermitage, Home of President Andrew Jackson, and witness history.

ATLANTA HISTORY CENTER
TURNING POINT

The Pearce Museum
Discover their stories. Find your voice.
...where the Civil War and the American West come to life through letters, documents, artifacts, and art.

SIMPLY SUMMER
Simply Extraordinary

WEIDER HISTORY GROUP

LIVE THE HISTORY

HISTORYNET.COM